

RISK ASSESSMENT FORM- EOD / RA Form 2

Off-Site Activity: Educational visits to Kelburn Country Centre. Gruffalo Tale

Venue: Kelburn Country Centre

Client Group: Educational Groups, Primary and Secondary Schools

Brief Description of site: Pyramid stage area

Hazard	Possibility of Risk	Severity of Risk	Who	Control	Review
Tripping, grazes, cuts.	High	Low	All participants	All teachers, helpers and children are briefed before commencement of activity, re: ground conditions etc. Stout footwear required.	Area assessed before use for safety by Ranger Staff.
				Ranger to brief teachers/helpers of the site
				Rangers to carry first aid kits and be in communication with the front office for additional assistance if needed
				Area suitable with established boundary for school age children.
Effects of climate: sunburn, heat stroke, hypothermia	Medium	Medium	All participants	Suncream advised for children, hats advised for very sunny days, waterproofs for windy wet days. Rangers will consider conditions throughout the session and will make arrangements to conclude if conditions become sever.
Litter, metal, glass etc.	Low	Low	All participants	Litter patrols carried out	Site assessed before use for safety by Ranger Staff.
Brambles, prickly undergrowth, nettles	Medium	Low	All participants	Suvery of area, advise caution to group, rangers to check with teachers for any allergies	Rangers will identify areas or strim if required.
				Identify plants so children can recognise and risk assess
Tasty looking fungi/berries	Low	High	All participants	Advise caution, no member of group to pick/eat anything
Possible diseases	Low	High	All participants	Essential that the group washes hands before eating - content of session will require group to use their hands. Advise group or parents regarding, Lymes Disease, and Weils Disease. Grazes/cuts covered, long trousers and checks

RISK ASSESSMENT FORM- EOD / RA Form 2

Off-Site Activity: Educational visits to Kelburn Country Centre. Wild Kelburn

Venue: Kelburn Country Centre

Client Group: Educational Groups, Primary and Secondary Schools Wild Kelburn

Brief Description of site: Museum and surrounding area

Hazard	Possibility of Risk	Severity of Risk	Who	Control	Review
Tripping, grazes, cuts.	High	Low	All participants	All teachers, helpers and children are briefed before commencement of activity, re: ground conditions etc. Stout footwear required.	Area assessed before use for safety by Ranger Staff.
				Ranger to brief teachers/helpers of the site
				Rangers to carry first aid kits and be in communication with the front office for additional assistance if needed
				Area suitable with established boundary for school age children.
Effects of climate: sunburn, heat stroke, hypothermia	Medium	Medium	All participants	Suncream advised for children, hats advised for very sunny days, waterproofs for windy wet days. Rangers will consider conditions throughout the session and will make arrangements to conclude if conditions become sever.
Litter, metal, glass etc.	Low	Low	All participants	Litter patrols carried out	Site assessed before use for safety by Ranger Staff.
Brambles, prickly undergrowth, nettles	Medium	Low	All participants	Suvery of area, advise caution to group, rangers to check with teachers for any allergies	Rangers will identify areas or strim if required.
				Identify plants so children can recognise and risk assess
Tasty looking fungi/berries	Low	High	All participants	Advise caution, no member of group to pick/eat anything
Possible diseases	Low	High	All participants	Essential that the group washes hands before eating - content of session will require group to use their hands. Advise group or parents regarding, Lymes Disease, and Weils Disease. Grazes/cuts covered, long trousers and checks

RISK ASSESSMENT FORM- EOD / RA Form 2

Off-Site Activity: Educational visits to Kelburn Country Centre Bushcrafft

Venue: Kelburn Country Centre

Client Group: Educational Groups, Primary and Secondary Schools

Brief Description of site: Pyramid stage area / Viewpoint Stage area

Hazard	Possibility of Risk	Severity of Risk	Who	Control	Review
Tripping, grazes, cuts.	High	Low	All participants	All teachers, helpers and children are briefed before commencement of activity, re: ground conditions etc. Stout footwear required.	Area assessed before use for safety by Ranger Staff.
				Ranger to brief teachers/helpers of the site
				Rangers to carry first aid kits and be in communication with the front office for additional assistance if needed
				Area suitable with established boundary for school age children.
Effects of climate: sunburn, heat stroke, hypothermia	Medium	Medium	All participants	Suncream advised for children, hats advised for very sunny days, waterproofs for windy wet days. Rangers will consider conditions throughout the session and will make arrangements to conclude if conditions become sever.
Litter, metal, glass etc.	Low	Low	All participants	Litter patrols carried out	Site assessed before use for safety by Ranger Staff.
Brambles, prickly undergrowth, nettles	Medium	Low	All participants	Suvery of area, advise caution to group, rangers to check with teachers for any allergies	Rangers will identify areas or strim if required.
				Identify plants so children can recognise and risk assess
Tasty looking fungi/berries	Low	High	All participants	Advise caution, no member of group to pick/eat anything

Possible diseases	Low	High	All participants	Essential that the group washes hands before eating - content of session will require group to use their hands. Advise group or parents regarding, Lyme Disease, and Weils Disease. Grazes/cuts covered, long trousers and checks
--------------------------	-----	------	------------------	---	--

RISK ASSESSMENT FORM- EOD / RA Form 2

Off-Site Activity: Educational visits to Kelburn Country Centre. Falconry

Venue: Kelburn Country Centre

Client Group: Educational Groups, Primary and Secondary Schools

Brief Description of site: Front lawn

Hazard	Possibility of Risk	Severity of Risk	Who	Control	Review
Tripping, grazes, cuts.	Medium	Low	All participants	All teachers, helpers and children are briefed before commencement of activity, re: ground conditions etc. Stout footwear required.	Area assessed before use for safety by Ranger Staff.
				Ranger to brief teachers/helpers of the format to watch display
				Rangers to carry first aid kits and be in communication with the front office for additional assistance if needed
				Limited movement due to "show" style activity
Effects of climate: sunburn, heat stroke, hypothermia	Medium	Medium	All participants	Suncream advised for children, hats advised for very sunny days, waterproofs for windy wet days. Rangers will consider conditions throughout the session and will make arrangements to conclude if conditions become severe.
Litter, metal, glass etc.	Low	Low	All participants	Litter patrols carried out	Site assessed before use for safety by Ranger Staff.
Noise and disruption to Birds	Medium	Medium	All participants	Group will be briefed on appropriate behaviour prior to birds being displayed
				Distance boundary set by handler
Possible diseases	Low	High	All participants	Essential that the group washes hands before eating - content of session will require group to use their hands. Advise group or parents regarding, Lyme Disease, and Weils Disease. Grazes/cuts covered, long trousers and checks	